Homework 9

1. Why are negative numbers more expensive to store than positive numbers ?
2. Test the following statements in Remix, which is cheaper and why ?
   Assume that the demoninator can never be zero.

   1.

```
result = numerator / demoninator;
```

   2.

```
assembly {
  result := div(numerator, demoninator)
}
```